[REDACTED] Mr. Wilson, in the office of Representative Paul McCloskey (R., Calif.) called to ask for the name and number of the individual who could arrange a briefing for the Representative on Cambodia. [REDACTED] After hearing from [REDACTED] 25X1A that the FBI had been informed of the House Internal Security Committee's interest in [REDACTED] and had no objections to the proceedings, I called Mr. Robert Horner, Chief Investigator of the Committee, and told him that [REDACTED] would be available to the Committee for the staff interview, under the conditions already agreed to, at their convenience. Mr. Horner suggested we try sometime next week and left the date up to us. Mr. Horner said they would be interested in two things: [REDACTED] 25X1A

1. [REDACTED] Talked with Mrs. Jean Wilson, in the office of Senator Richard S. Schweiker (R., Pa.), about the referrals we had received from the Department of Defense and the State Department of the correspondence the Senator had received from [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] Pennsylvania. I told Mrs. Wilson I assumed that the suggested reply which [REDACTED] had provided the Senator's office on 15 April had settled the matter and the referrals from the other departments had occurred after that date. Mrs. Wilson assured me that our response had taken care of the matter and added that nothing further was required.

2. [REDACTED] Robert Horner, House Internal Security Committee staff, called to express the Committee's interest in the appearance of [REDACTED] I told him that it was my understanding that she was under the control of the [REDACTED] and if this was still true we probably could not be of any help, but that I would get a current reading and be back in touch.

Mr. Horner asked if we had received their statement concerning the ways in which the Committee believed the testimony of [REDACTED] could be helpful. I told him that we had, that it is now in the hands of responsible officers, and that we probably would be back in touch in the next day or so.

In response to an earlier inquiry and based on the advice of [REDACTED] WH Division, I told Mr. Sourwine that we did not have any hard information on the publication date of the January/February issue of the Tri-Continental. He thanked us for our efforts.
